

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

EMMANUEL CLASS:

The Emmanuel Class will be continuing reading and studying the book by James E. Moore—Have You Ever Seen a Hearse Pulling a Trailer? Our last lesson suggested ways of coping in our world today and how to use our coping skills to serve God. Our last lesson was on Patience. The suggestion was that the things that matter the most take time, effort, participation, discipline and a lot of patience. We wish very Happy Birthdays to Karen Carter—10/19 and Barbara Jones—10/21. Keep Ed Baker's family in your prayers.

GENESIS CLASS:

Greetings, Genesis Class. We've had a great attendance in September, with 13 almost every Sunday and not necessarily the same 13. Welcome to Susan Fowler as our newest member and Linda Smith our latest visitor. We are still in Revelation, beginning with Chapter 14:6 this week. For those on the Fall Fest Committee, the meeting has been changed to October 12 at 4pm. United Women of Faith (UMW) is at 10 am on October 14. It will be lead by our very own Linda Savell making a beautiful craft. She has assured me you don't have to be crafty (I'm not), but come for fun, fellowship and food. Congratulations to Amy West on taking on the job as President of this great organization. Good luck, Amy. We received wonderful news that Mike Turner is CANCER FREE. The power of prayer is once again proven. LNO is October 9 at Hoffbrau's around 4:30ish. Be on the lookout for a text that week. Keep these in your prayers and thoughts: Dayna's friends Karen and Angie; Buddy's sister, Karen; and Kelly Henderson.

Doughnuts this month:

October 5—Michael & Claudia Turner

October 12—Open

October 19—Dayna Cox

October 26—Anita Bookout

Have a great week and month. See y'all Sunday.

UPPER ROOM CLASS:

Greetings from the Upper Room Class. Our average attendance for September was 12. Business: Our class will be running the Country Store during Fall Fest. We are making our famous pecan tarts and a few crafts for the store. We would graciously accept crafts, cakes, cookies, candies, breads, preserves or whatever you would like to donate to fill our room with enticing treats and irresistible finds. We are participating in the fall Resale Shop Yard Sale on October 11, meeting at 7:30 a.m. for set up. Also, we are filling boxes for the Samaritan's Purse Operation Christmas Child.

Joys: We have had three children born this month to members of our class. Sharon Fiddle is the proud great grandmother to twins (a boy and a girl) and Ronnie Phippen is the proud grandfather to a baby girl. We praise God for these births. Two of Cindy Lasiter's granddaughters were baptized on September 28 and another granddaughter has accepted the Lord. We sing praises for these blessings. Ronnie Phippen, officially retired has gone back to work as an electrician at the Burnett Plaza Building. Way to go, Ronnie! Prayer Concerns: Byron and Melissa Lechler, Bonnie Richards, Ragan and Mandy (daughters to Sharon Friddle), Angela (Ronnie's daughter), Garold LaRue and Rose Mascari.

Resale Shop: $738 (average for September)

Devotion/Refreshments: Ann and Virgil

I would like to send a big thank you to the Care Connection members for the cards and prayers for me. Thank you to: Rev. Pick, Dr. Martha, Mary, Tommie, Barbara, Ann, Barb, Mary & George and Ruby for the poem she wrote. The card could not have come at a better time for me and my family. We received it on Saturday, September 13 after a heartbreaking week. On October 9, after a freak accident, we had to put our sweet baby Fred down. While we are devastated we know God has a plan for us and for Fred. So when I received the card Saturday, it was a blessing at the end of a terrible week. Thank you again to each one of you as you mean the world to our family.

God Bless, Scott Paris
